

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

New York. — Commodity prices have increased 25 per cent since the outbreak of war, according to Dun's Review.

Toledo. — Three men and a woman, alleged to be auto bandits who have been terrorizing middle western cities, arrested here.

Cumberland, Md. — Two men were killed, 16 others injured, when Western Maryland excursion train en route to Hagerstown ran head-on into "labor train" in the Knob Mount yard.

St. Joseph, Mo. — With trial for wife murder set for week from today, County Prosecutor Oscar McDaniel is out on bond, campaigning for reelection.

Columbus, O. — Undertakers in national session here propose to raise high cost of dying—dead—and blame high cost of dyeing shrouds and advance in chemicals on account of war.

Mattoon, Ill. — Egyptian Trail ass'n, boosting for pike from Chicago to Cairo, will ask next legislature to pass $10,000,000 good roads appropriation.

Calgary, Alb. — Soldiers raided the mounted police barracks in attempt to rescue five comrades. One soldier shot. Will recover.

London. — Drop in prices to consumers followed immediately after seizure by government of wheat supply.

London. — Irish Unionists passed resolution in house of commons calling on government to extend conscription to Ireland.

Buffalo. — T. A. Hart, pres. King-Dort Motor Sales Co., found at desk in dying condition with bullet in head and revolver on floor.

Ottawa, Ill. — Not expected Chas. B. Munday's appeal from conviction of complicity in wrecking La Salle Trust and Savings bank will be heard for another year.

New York. — White dove with gold band tied to leg flew in window of Batterson & Eisels' marble office. Band marked "U-53" and filled with symbols interpreters are now trying to translate.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Announcement notices should be sent in at least the day before publication is desired. We receive notices after we have gone to press, and consequently cannot use them.—EDITOR.

Twenty-second ward regular Democratic organization will hold mass meeting Fri., 8 p. m., at headquarters, Clybourn and Larabee. John C. Wardell, Dem. candidate for representative 31st district; A. Dolan, J. C. Caverly, F. K. Wallace and others will speak.

Henry Hatch, principal of the Thorp school, will speak on "Present Day Social Service Education" at the meeting of the 18th Ward Civic league, 8 p. m. tonight, 422 S. Hoyne.

Symposium of speakers will discuss theme, "What I Get From New Thought," at Sun. meeting, hall 210, Masonic Temple, 11 a. m. Music.

Russian performance and ball by Relief Society for Political Exiles and Prisoners in Russia, Sat., Oct. 14, West Side auditorium, Taylor and Racine. Proceeds will go for those exiled in Siberia and imprisoned in jails of Russia as "political criminals."

J. D. Abrams speaks on "Why I Leave the Social Question Unsolved," Friday night, Radical library, 1336 W. Taylor. Lectures and discussions every Friday night.

Central West Side Y. P. S. L. meets at Workers' institute, Fri., 8 p. m.

SOME DIFFERENCE

Speeder—But, constable, I was going for a doctor. Doesn't that make any difference?

Constable—You bet it does! The judge is a Christian Scientist.—Life.